The Captain should receive orders from the CHARTERER as to ports to be called at and general course of the voyage, but the Captain should be responsible for the safe navigation of the vessel and the CHARTERER should abide by his judgment as to sailing, weather, anchorages, and pertinent matters.

18. BAREBOAT CHARTER: This charter shall be at all times construed as a bareboat charter and / or a demise charter, and pursuant thereto CHARTERER should keep the Yacht in good repair and will surrender the Yacht at the termination of the charter free and clear of all indebtedness, liens or other charges of any type whatsoever. It is the intention of the OWNER to completely and exclusively relinquish possession, command, control, management, and navigation of the Yacht herein described to the CHARTERER. CHARTERER assumes all responsibility for any injury, death, property damage, any Acts of God or other claim of any nature that may arise during the period of the charter or at any time when the vessel is in the custody and under the control of the CHARTERER.

OWNER reserves the right to verify CHARTERER'S competency at time of charter by subjecting CHARTERER to whatever tests are deemed appropriate by OWNER under the circumstances. Should CHARTERER be judged insufficiently competent by OWNER, OWNER shall have the right to require CHARTERER, AT CHARTERER'S expense, to hire personnel to assist CHARTERER in achieving competency. Should such personnel be unavailable, or CHARTERER refuses to hire such personnel, then it is considered that the CHARTERER is in default of this Agreement and CHARTERER shall surrender the Yacht immediately and shall have no recourse for any fees which have already been paid to the OWNER.
